Students can share their vision of heroism!

Teachers inspire your students to create portraits, environmentally themed art and graphical PSAs to promote local and global heroes on our commercial free, family friendly Gallery.

Explore visual heroism, watch a short video intro to the MY HERO Gallery.

Teach the themes of peace, social justice, and environmentalism with this lesson plan.

Browse examples of student and professional hero art from global artists here.

Celebrate heroes and acts of courage

All art submitted must be original, family friendly and positive in its message. Tutorials to help students are available. Register to have your students create individual works of art.

The MY HERO Project will not knowingly publish any work that has been plagiarized or reproduced from any other source and will not promote hate, violence or prejudice anywhere on our website.

Resources are available for arts educators.

Elementary, middle, high school and college student art will be awarded prizes in June at our annual HERO Fest.

The Shetterly Portrait Prize

This prize recognizes the artist who most eloquently represents a hero or an act of heroism in an artwork. This award is given by artist Robert Shetterly, founder of Americans Who Tell the Truth, www.americanswhotellthetruth.org. It is presented at the MY HERO International Film Festival.
